

Problem solving-Quiz

Q1. The ability to identify and solve problems

- a. Is a specialized skills used in technical professions and engineers
- b. Is a universal skill that is beneficial in a wide variety of careers
- c. It is a skill that it can't be taught

Q2. The problem-solving process starts with

- a. The definition of the problem
- b. The implementation of different possible solutions
- c. The collection of different ideas

Q3. The Five Ws represents the following:

- a. Why? Where? Who? What? When?
- b. work, want, wish, wait, way
- c. Who? Who? Who? Who? Who? Cause this problem?

Q4. The final step of the problem solving process is:

- a. Test the solution
- b. To evaluate
- c. To evaluate and review

Q5. Please write the basic stages of the problem solving process

Correct answers:

1. c, 2. a, 3. a., 4. c.